

January 14, 2022

Next Steps for LHJF Participants

Dear Music Educator,

The 2022 Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival has modified our program format to accommodate participating schools in the current pandemic. For more information regarding these changes please review the press release.

To provide a positive experience for everyone, we ask that you please complete the steps listed below.

1. All registered participants: please select one of the following options by sending an email with your response to jazzinfo@uidaho.edu by January 19, 2022.
 - Participating on campus; will submit performance recording and meet with an adjudicator on campus to receive feedback
 - Participating on campus; not submitting performance recording
 - Participating online; will submit performance recording and meet with an adjudicator online to receive feedback
 - Will not be participating
2. Directors with multiple student participants (regardless of online/in-person status): please create a student credentials excel spreadsheet containing the following information:
 - Column A – Student Last Name
 - Column B – Student First Name
 - Column C – Student Grade Level/Year in School
 - Column D – Student Email

This information will be used for security, scheduling, and webinar purposes. Please upload your spreadsheet by January 19, 2022.

- File name: School_Director Last Name

3. Participants attending in-person events: Purchase tickets here at a discount with promo code LHJF22 to supplement your jazz festival experience.
 - Concerts will feature current jazz icons Dee Dee Bridgewater and Chris Potter as well as all 16 members of the Lionel Hampton Big Band featuring Joe Doubleday.

For our latest covid policy view our guidelines and keep checking your inbox for our newsletters containing helpful information leading up to the Festival. Also be sure to view our website and follow us on Facebook, Instagram and Twitter for the latest updates on artists, workshops, scheduling and more.

We look forward to seeing you in February!

Sincerely,

The Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival Team