

2020

IDAHO RANGE LIVESTOCK SYMPOSIUM

Adapting to a Changing Rangeland Environment

JANUARY 6: American Legion Hall, Marsing

JANUARY 7: CSI Herrett Center, Twin Falls

JANUARY 8: Bannock County Veterans Memorial Building, Pocatello

JANUARY 9: BYU-Idaho Ag. Science Center, Rexburg

A one-day traveling program and networking event PACKED with information on industry-relevant topics for producers and rangeland managers.

Learn more and register:

www.uidaho.edu/cnr/rangeland-center/events/irls

Questions? Contact:

University of Idaho Extension

- Scott Jensen, Marsing
(208) 896-4104
scottj@uidaho.edu
- Benton Glaze, Twin Falls
(208) 736-3638
bglaze@uidaho.edu

Thanks to our 2020 partners:

- University of Idaho Extension, Dept. of Animal and Vet Science, and the Rangeland Center
- Idaho Rangeland Resources Commission
- Idaho Cattle Association
- Natural Resources Conservation Service
- Idaho Dept. of Lands
- Idaho State Dept. of Agriculture

Keynote Speaker: Kit Pharo

Based in Colorado, the family-operated Pharo Cattle Company is an internationally renowned business, selling over 1,000 forage-developed bulls each year.

Kit's philosophies and genetics have been proven to increase profit per acre in nearly all environments and have helped producers find the competitive advantage.