

8:30 AM: Welcome and Introduction - Flat Creek Cabin

8:45 AM Firewising the Flat Creek Cabin – Heather Heward; UI Fire (Rem 144) students

9:20 AM What to do if your home is threatened by wildfire – Idaho Dept of Lands

10:00 AM How the IDL slash hazard system works when you thin stands– recently treated larch and mixed conifer stand examples - Robert Barkley, IDL

10:40 AM Wildlife in managed forests – Sophie Gilbert, UI; Kassandra Townsend, UI Experimental Forest

11:15 AM Reducing fuels with small and large mastication equipment (demonstration) –Triple B Excavation; Student Logging Crew, UIEF

12:00 PM LUNCH TOPIC - Basalt Hill fire history at the Palouse Prairie – Ponderosa pine transition – Penny Morgan, UI

12:45 PM Targeted grazing with goats to manage fuels (demonstration) – Michelle Wiest, Princeton, ID

1:15 PM Using prescribed fire to reduce hazard while managing for quality timber - UIEF Student Leadership; Rob Keefe, UIEF Forest Manager

Registration is $17/person (free for students!) Online payment:

https://marketplace.uidaho.edu/C20272_ustores/web/product_detail.jsp?PRODUCTID=3148

Questions? Please contact Kassandra Townsend at (208) 885-6695 or ktownsend@uidaho.edu

Directions: the UIEF Cabin Road entrance is approximately 4 miles east from Harvard on Highway 9. Heading east, continue approximately 4 miles and turn right just before the railroad underpass (second UIEF entrance).

University of Idaho Experimental Forest

1 inch = 2,667 feet

Legend

Activity

-  1 - Flat Creek Cabin
-  2 - Thinned Western Larch
-  3 - Thinned Mixed Conifer
-  5 - Small Mastication
-  6 - Large Mastication
-  7 - Basalt Hill
-  8 - Targeted Grazing
-  9 - Controlling Competition
-  Planting Demonstration
-  Shady Grade

— Roads

— Contours - 6m

 UIEF Boundary