Facility Reservations and Policies

Reservations:
Facility reservations are processed by the Facilities Scheduler in the Recreation & Wellbeing office located in the Student Recreation Center. All facility reservation requests must be submitted using our online form (see link below) and made a minimum of 10 days prior to the event.

Recreation & Wellbeing reserves the right to reassign and schedule its facility reservations based on consideration of academic programs, campus activities, institutional and departmental priority events, group size, event scope & weather/ facility conditions. In such instances, every attempt will be made to include the client in the discussion and provide timely notice.

Getting Started:
How do I rent or reserve Recreation & Wellbeing outdoor facilities?
- Online Request form: https://uidaho.co1.qualtrics.com/jfe/form/SV_38IUXIZ0m0FWb1H
- Questions can be answered in person or over the phone at the Recreation & Wellbeing Office 885-6353

Approval of facility spaces is dependent on priority scheduling, availability, impact to existing programs, scope of event, weather/ facility conditions and submission date of the request. Reservation requests submitted three weeks or more prior to the event take priority.

Priority Use:
Outdoor Spaces are prioritized in the following order:
- University Academic classes
- Recreation & Wellbeing Programs
- University of Idaho Departments (ASUI Organizations; Athletic Practices, Housing)
- General Public

The Multi-Activity Court (MAC) is prioritized in the following order:
- Recreation & Wellbeing programs/ activities
- Student organizations: Greek residences, ASUI clubs, residence halls, Sport Clubs, etc.
