SPRING SCHEDULE
OUTDOOR PROGRAM
23
The University of Idaho Outdoor Program is a non-profit service organization providing the community with education and resources for wilderness-based, human-powered, and environmentally sound activities. We promote teamwork, leadership, and growth through outdoor adventure experiences.

FAQ

What services are offered through the Outdoor Program?
- Instructional Trips
- Cooperative Trips
- Rental Equipment
- Outdoor Information
- Resource Material
- Trip Planning Assistance
- Equipment Repair
- Ski & Snowboard Tuning
- Climbing Center
- Technical Skills Clinics

How much does it cost?
Cooperative trips are cost sharing. Listed fees are for transportation, instruction, and group gear (if necessary).

How does food and supplies work?
Unless specified, participants supply all their own food and sleeping supplies (ex. sleeping bags, tents, etc.). There are certain trips that include meal planning and purchasing. Required pre-trip meetings are held to work out trip details.

What if I don’t have the right equipment or supplies?
Personal equipment can be rented through the Outdoor Program Rental Center.
What does the “Iconic Idaho Experience” mean?

Big wilderness, scenic rivers, breathtaking mountain lakes, jagged peaks and more. These trips embody places that are iconic Idaho adventures. Do one a year and hit them all by the time you graduate.

How do I participate?

Registration for trips is completed in person at the Outdoor Program office located in the Student Recreation Center (SRC). All sign-ups open on the first day of the semester and are first-come, first-served.

Each program lists details regarding registration deadlines, cost, required pre-trip meeting, and trip specifics. Transportation is included for most trips.

Fees are due to confirm program reservation and are non-refundable. Non-university students may be charged an additional fee, which will be listed in the program information. Cash or check only!

Release of liability form and health screening questionnaire will be emailed out after sign-up and are due back before the pre-trip meeting. Packing list and course information will be distributed after sign-up.

Required pre-trip meetings will happen in person or virtually depending on the program. Stop by the Outdoor Program Office or call for additional information.

Some events don’t require registration - look for this symbol that indicates the program is a drop-in.
