

IDAHO STUDENT UNION
BUILDING BOARD
CONSTITUTION AND BYLAWS

Constitution

Article I—Name

The Idaho Student Union Building (ISUB) Board shall be the official name used for reference, print, digital, or any other intent or purpose.

Article II—Authority and Oversight

Section A

The ISUB Board shall have recommending oversight of the space allocation, utilization, and operations of the ISUB. The board is empowered to review ISUB tenants, space utilization, space requests, and make decisions regarding space within the ISUB. The ISUB Board is not empowered to oversee the Teaching and Learning Center (TLC) or classrooms within. However, because of the integrated nature of the ISUB and the TLC, the Board may review space assignments in the contiguous north-south corridors of the TLC.

Section B

The ISUB Board may submit space recommendations to the Division of Finance and Administration. The Board may submit recommendations regardless of the availability of space on campus. Space recommendations cannot be approved until the Board has proposed new locations for any displaced offices. New locations must include suitable space and not impose an unreasonable cost or transition burden on any displaced offices. If the Board submits complete and viable recommendations, approval will not be unreasonably withheld by the Vice President of Finance and Administration. Approved recommendations will be implemented within one (1) year.

Section B

The ISUB Board may create a master plan for the use and expansion of the ISUB. This master plan will be incorporated into the overall campus master plan. To facilitate the development of these plans, the Board Chair (Constitution Article III, Section B) will be a voting member of the Campus Planning and Advisory Committee.

Section C

The ISUB Board may provide recommendations on renovations and additions to the ISUB. The Executive Director of Administrative Operations will consider these recommendations in the development of annual facility maintenance and management plans and budgets. Proposed plans and budgets will be presented to the Board, and then submitted to the Vice President of Finance and Administration for final approval. ISUB operations and resources will be managed within the overall portfolio of facilities assigned to Administrative Operations.

Section D

The ISUB Board may request updates and information pertinent to the function and oversight of the ISUB Board from ISUB tenants. The ISUB Board will determine a reasonable timeline for information and updates to be provided.

Article III—Membership and Selection

Section A

The ISUB Board shall consist of the following voting members: ASUI President or designee, ASUI Director of Student Spaces, two (2) ASUI Senators, one (1) representative from the Student Bar Association, one (1) representative from the Graduate Student Program, and the Vice-Provost for Student Affairs or designee. The board shall also maintain one (1) non-voting Staff member from the Department of Student Affairs, one (1) non-voting staff member from Administrative Operations, and one (1) non-voting staff member from Facilities Services.

Section B

The ISUB Board Chair shall normally be the ASUI Director of Student Spaces or ASUI President designee for student spaces. The ISUB Board Vice-Chair shall be elected from the membership at the first meeting of every academic year. Should the chair be unable to attend, the vice-chair shall act as chair. Should both the chair and the vice-chair be unable to attend, the chair shall appoint a member in advance to act as chair for the duration of the designated meeting.

Section C

The ISUB Board Chair shall review all applications received for open board positions relevant to their constituency groups, conduct interview sessions with applicants and forward no more than three applicants to the ASUI president, specifying a preferred candidate, for consideration. All open Board positions must be advertised for a minimum of one full week prior to closing the application pool for consideration. The Board shall create an application in advance.

Section D

ISUB Board Membership shall be responsible to the ISUB Board Chair and other active members. The board shall be advised by the Vice President of Finance and Administration. Additional advisors may be selected upon request of the ISUB Board.

Board duties shall include:

- Fulfilling all of the duties ascribed to their department in the ISUB Board Constitution and Bylaws
- Training of Board/Committee members
- Developing and maintaining a budget as necessary
- Attending Board meetings as scheduled
- Identifying and recruiting potential new Board members should vacancies arise

Article IV—Budget and Spending

Section A

All budgetary spending must be approved by a two-thirds (2/3) majority vote of the full ISUB Board.

Section B

All budgetary proposals submitted to ASUI by the ISUB Board Chair, and must be approved by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the full ISUB Board.

Article V—Voting

Section A

All valid voting must be conducted at quorum. Quorum will be defined as half (1/2) the ISUB Board membership plus one (1).

Section B

All major decisions regarding the use of budget money, facilities, or that is done under the Boards name, must be approved a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the full ISUB Board. All other votes may be conducted by simple majority.

Section C

Voting methodology may include hand vote, roll vote, or secret ballot. The default voting procedure will be a roll call vote. Amendments may be conducted by a default hand vote. A secret ballot may be requested and approved by a simple majority vote.

Section D

In the event of a tie the ISUB Board Chair shall make the deciding vote.

Article VI—Amendments

This constitution may be amended by a two-thirds (2/3) vote of the current voting membership of the Board at quorum at any of the regular scheduled meetings provided the proposed amendment has been presented to the Board in writing two weeks in advance. Constitution change(s) must be approved by the ASUI Senate and ASUI President.

Amendment 1

Dissolution of this board shall only occur by a unanimous vote of the board.
