- Connecting with secondary students through U of I networks
- Engaging with communities on critical topics

“I am walking away from this class knowing who I am as an individual, my core values and what really makes me tick. It has made me a stronger student and a stronger person. I discovered that I am a leader; courageous and bold. Fear no longer controls my decisions. I have a new sense of self through this season of growth!”

~ Jessica, “Discover U” participant, high school student
