University of Idaho- Rubrics- Faculty Experience

December 2020

Jenna Ralicki

Enterprise Consultant

Anthology

Jralicki@campuslabs.com

As of July 7, 2020, we are Anthology and will revolutionize higher education;

Three Companies Joining Together

Campus Management,

Campus Labs,

and iModules

unite to form one organization.

As a result of this training, attendees will be able to:

- Navigate the Rubrics/Blackboard Integration

- Understand basic Rubrics site functionality

- Articulate the integration available when using the Anthology Outcomes tool

Blackboard Integration

Anthology (Campus Labs)

This help page will show you how to integrate Anthology (Campus Labs) with your BbLearn course.

Overview

- Step 1. Contact the UI Anthology representative
- Step 2. Add Module Page to BbLearn Course

Step 1. Contact UI Anthology Rep

- Contact the UI Anthology representative to have your BbLearn account setup with a Secondary role as Faculty. The special secondary faculty role is required before you will be allowed to connect your BbLearn course with Anthology. It is required just once per user. Once your account is setup with a secondary faculty role, you may follow Step 2 (below) t*o* connect Anthology to many of your BbLearn courses as needed.

    UI Anthology representative contact: Sara Mahuron(sara@uidaho.edu)

Step 2. Add Module Page to BbLearn Course

Follow the steps below to add Anthology as a Course Module to your BbLearn course.

- Click on the Plus symbol to add a new left menu item to your BbLearn course.

anthology

Blackboard Integration

Campus Labs Course Sync

Course Sync will send your current enrollment and assignment information to Campus Labs Rubrics so you can evaluate course participants and sync your grades back into Blackboard.

Sync Data   Get Scores

Launch Rubrics ↗

Powered by campuslabs