

Dr. Lisa M. Victoravich serves the University of Denver's Daniels College of Business as Associate Dean for Faculty and Research and the founding Director of the Executive Ph.D. Program and Professor of Accounting. Previously, she served as the Associate Dean for Undergraduate Programs. In her administrative roles, she has enhanced the undergraduate student experience with a focus on professional development and inclusion, launched the College's EPhD Program and promotes faculty governance, teaching, and research excellence, and is the college lead for the upcoming AACSB reaccreditation visit.

Before joining the University of Denver, Dr. Victoravich received her Ph.D. in Business Administration with a concentration in Accounting at Florida State University and worked for Ernst & Young in the Assurance Services Practice.

Her research examines the effects of public policy on the decision-making of relevant stakeholders, which has been published in Decision Sciences, Auditing: A Journal of Practice and Theory, Behavioral Research in Accounting, Journal of Accounting and Public Policy, Corporate Governance: An International Review, Accounting and the Public Interest, Managerial Auditing, Journal of Managerial Psychology, Advances in Accounting, as well as other outlets.