Third Year Review for Tenure-track Positions:

A thorough review by a non-tenured faculty member's colleagues is held during the 24 to 36 month period after beginning employment at UI. The exact period of time when the review is conducted should be determined by what serves in the candidate's best interest. For example, candidates hired with credit toward tenure should be reviewed earlier (nearer 24 months) to ensure enough time is available for any corrective actions if necessary.
