

Changing to Pass/Fail

As part of the University's COVID-19 response, certain Spring 2020 courses may convert to Pass/Fail grading.

Undergraduate and graduate students considering opting in need to carefully consider their decision and reach out to an academic advisor with questions.

To see if any of your courses are included, log into VandalWeb.

Under the Students tab in VandalWeb, select Registration [1].

After selecting which grading option to use [4], click Submit Changes [5].

Verify your selection was saved by clicking the link to Add/Drop Courses [6]. If the Grade Mode showing [7] is not what you intended, click on the grade mode text to return and resubmit your changes.
