

Ambassador Application

Due Date: March 25

The College of Science Ambassador Program is a program designed to incorporate exceptional undergraduate students from within our college to aid in our recruitment and retention efforts and act as the official representatives of the College of Science to the community.

Ambassadors have opportunities to develop communication and leadership skills, strengthen their professionalism, and establish working relations with university faculty, students, and staff.

Serving as a College of Science Ambassador requires a substantial time commitment. One academic credit per semester is offered for participation, and the term of service is for a minimum of one year.

Selection process:

1. Applications and letters of interest will be evaluated by current ambassadors.
2. A maximum of 20 applicants will be contacted for an interview.
3. Selected student ambassadors will be notified to register for the College of Science Ambassador course (1 credit). The class will meet once a week during the semester at a time to be determined.

Eligible applicants must:

- ✓ be full-time students in the College of Science
- ✓ have a minimum GPA of 3.0
- ✓ have completed two semesters at the University of Idaho
- ✓ commit to at least one year of service
- ✓ regularly attend the class session
- ✓ be available to participate in evening and weekend events
- ✓ commit to ambassador trainings/duties during the semester
- ✓ be highly motivated, enthusiastic, dependable, knowledgeable, and sincere in representing the University of Idaho College of Science
