(a) To send the case to the Director of Fraternity and Sorority Life for mediation
(b) To send the case to the IFC Judicial Board
(c) To send the case to the University of Idaho GCSB
(d) Dismiss case

Subsection 04. Notification of Referral

The IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs shall inform the involved parties using a Notification of Referral after promptly concluding the inquiry and referral decision.

Section 3. Conduct

Subsection 01. Definition and Jurisdiction

The IFC Judicial Board shall serve as the primary court of conduct for IFC fraternities.

(a) Jurisdiction of the Board shall be granted by the IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs during the inquiry process or after unresolved mediation.
(b) Any policy infractions of the IFC, university, state and federal laws may be brought to the IFC Judicial Board

Subsection 02. Notice of Hearing

(a) The IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs shall compose a Notice of Hearing. He shall deliver a copy of the notice to the involved party via email or alternative methods.
(b) The IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs shall schedule the hearing within seven days of the notice of hearing. This scheduled hearing shall occur as promptly as possible but must be at least three business days after the notice of hearing has been delivered. The IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs may arrange for a hearing at any time after the three business day courtesy wait time.
(c) The IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs must notify the involved parties of date, time, and place for the hearing via email or alternative methods.

Subsection 03. Membership

(a) Make-up of a Hearing Board/Quorum:
(1) The IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs will choose 8 justices at random to serve on a particular hearing in collaboration with an OFSL representative and/or the IFC President.

(2) A member of the accused organization may not be selected as one of the Justices serving for that hearing.

(3) If a Justice feels he cannot decide a complaint fairly, the justice may choose to disqualify himself. If a justice is disqualified he will be removed from the pool of members available for the hearing and must be replaced by another member from the pool chosen at random.

(4) There shall be at least two-thirds of the chosen judicial board members present in order to conduct the hearing.

(5) The IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs shall only vote in the event of a tie.

(b) Chairman of the Board:

(1) In the event that the IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs cannot perform the duties of his office during the hearing, a member of the IFC Executive Board, chosen by the IFC Senate, shall fill the role. If neither is available, the Judicial Board, with a majority vote, will appoint a Judicial Board member to fill the role.

(c) Who can be Present at a hearing

(1) The chapter president(s) of the parties involved in the complaint, the IFC Judicial Board and the IFC Vice President of Judicial Affairs. A member of the IFC Judicial Board or IFC Executive Board may not represent his own chapter during a hearing, unless said member is specifically involved with the complaint.

(d) Board members grade requirements:

(1) Each member must maintain a cumulative GPA of 2.8 or above, or have achieved at least a 3.5 minimum GPA in the semester immediately preceding his application for membership.

Subsection 04. Procedure

(a) The hearing will take place as follows. If an individual, or chapter’s representative, fails to appear at the hearing, the Judicial Board, by way of majority vote will select one of the following courses of action:
(1) Reschedule the hearing.
(2) Render a decision based on the available information.

(b) Responsibility

(1) A standard of preponderance of evidence shall be used. Preponderance of evidence shall be defined as “the greater weight of the evidence required in a claim for the trier of fact (jury) to decide in favor of one side or the other. This preponderance is based on the more convincing evidence and its probable truth or accuracy, and not on the amount of evidence.”

(2) If it is determined that the respondent is responsible of a violation, the Judicial Board will take appropriate and authorized action and impose any authorized and judicious sanction(s). This information will be submitted in writing to the defendant promptly.

(c) Scholarship Hearings Procedures

(1) Refer to Article IX of IFC Bylaws, Section 3 Chapter Evaluations.

Subsection 05. Results of Hearing

(a) The written decision of the hearing will include the facts of the case as well as any sanction(s) imposed.

(b) If it is determined that the defendant is not responsible of an infraction, the Judicial Board will submit this decision promptly as well.

(c) A copy of the decision shall be given to the Director of Greek Life, the Greek Life Advisor, the charged fraternity(ies)’s president, chapter alumnus advisor, and national office.

(d) The decision of the IFC Judicial Board shall be read at the next regular scheduled IFC meeting.

Section 4. Sanctions

Subsection 01. Recruitment Infractions

(a) Infractions for all Recruitment events, as well as any other events designated by IFC or the University as “dry events” (UIdaho Bound etc.).

(c) Failure of a Chapter to conduct a Risk Management presentation will result in a $100.00 fine.

Event Registration.

A. Chapters must fill out and turn in the Event Registration form in accordance with guidelines written in the Greek Recognition Agreement.
Article XIII. Hazing

All forms of hazing, New Member day and/or pre-initiation activities, which are defined as hazing shall be banned. Hazing is defined as any action taken or situation with or without consent that recklessly, intentionally or unintentionally endangers the mental health, physical health or safety of a student. Furthermore, if the activity creates risk of injury, causes discomfort, embarrassment, harassment or ridicule, or that willfully destroys or removes public or private property.

Such activities and situations include but are not limited to, creation of excessive fatigue; physical and psychological shocks; wearing apparel which is conspicuous and not normally in good taste; engaging in public stunts and jokes; morally degrading or humiliating games and activities; late night sessions which interfere with scholastic activities or normal sleep patterns; and any other activities that are not consistent with fraternal law, ritual, or the regulations and policies of the member fraternity of the national institution.
Article XIV. Amendments

Right to Introduce Amendments
Any member fraternity in good standing may introduce an amendment.

Procedure for Proposing Amendments
After the meeting in which an amendment is introduced, the IFC Senate shall hear one additional reading of the amendment in its next Regular Meeting and may vote on the amendment.

Adoption
An amendment that receives the affirmative vote of at least 2/3 (two-thirds) of IFC Senate is adopted as a part of these Bylaws. All amendments to the Constitution and Bylaws are subject to the approval of the Office of Fraternity and Sorority Life.
Article XV. Standing Rules

The IFC may establish and revoke standing rules by a 2/3 vote of the chapters in full membership and good standing. Standing Rules are valid only insofar as they do not conflict with these Bylaws or the rules, regulations, Bylaws and policies of the IFC.
Appendix A IFC Alcohol Policy

University of Idaho IFC Alcohol Policy
1. In accordance with Idaho State Law, Title 23, Section 23-615, alcoholic beverages may be neither consumed nor possessed by persons under the legal drinking age of twenty-one (21) while on chapter property, in facilities leased by said chapter, or at any chapter sponsored event.
2. In accordance with Idaho State Law, Title 37, Section 37-2732, the possession, sale and/or distribution of an illegal narcotic(s) on chapter property, in facilities leased by said chapter, or at any chapter sponsored event, is prohibited.
3. Alcoholic beverages may not be purchased for, served or sold to underage persons by active members of the fraternity on chapter property, in facilities leased by said chapter or at any chapter sponsored event. Active members are recognized as those undergraduate men with all rights and privileges of membership within a fraternal organization at the University of Idaho.
4. Only members of legal drinking age may be served, permitted to possess, or consume alcohol at fraternity social events. All consumption must take place in designated areas. Designated areas, within chapter houses, may include but are not limited to lounges, living rooms, party rooms and dining facilities.
5. Social events (gatherings on chapter property where alcohol is present will be referred to as a social event in this document) must consist of invited guests only. It is the responsibility of each fraternity to convey the invitation using written or verbal means. Following the extension of an invitation, the chapter members must compile a list of said invitees for the function. The list is suggested to include no less than the person’s full name. This list must be maintained with the following information:
   a. Who is in attendance at the function
   b. Who is over the age of 21
   c. Who is under the age of 21
6. All organizations having a social function must identify each guest at the door by viewing a valid form of picture ID that states the guests name and age. After determining if the guest is under or over the age of 21, the guest must then be clearly and physically identified as such by either a mark on their hand, a wristband, or another means.
7. A limitation shall be placed on all social events, allowing each chapter no more than three guests per member in attendance. This three to one ratio is seen as a reasonable means of maintaining a safe environment for the guests. Should this three to one ratio exceed the fire code of the host’s premises, it is the chapter’s duty to reduce invites and conform accordingly.
   a. In the case of a co-sponsored event, the number of guests invited by each chapter shall not exceed two per member in attendance.
   b. A guest is considered to be any person who is not a member of the organization itself in good standing. Any and all alumni may not be considered guests at chapter events. Furthermore, events held for the benefit of alumni shall be considered alumni events.
   c. The number of guests at alumni events may vary based on the nature of the event itself.
8. A minimum of 10% of the active membership must remain sober at all social functions. It is highly recommended that the names and contact numbers for these men be forwarded to the Moscow Police to create a positive and efficient interaction in the occurrence of an incident during the event.
9. No more than three men’s fraternal organizations may combine to host a social event. Each fraternity shall assume its portion of responsibility for the social event and its respective guests.
10. Date functions will have a one to one member, in attendance, to guest ratio. Invitations shall be extended and confirmed in the same manner found in Section 5 of this policy. Guests list will include the full name of the guest and the member who invited him or her.
11. In the situation of a co-sponsored or three to one ratio social event, tarps/fencing must be used to cordon off outdoor property and control access to the social event. Exits must be maintained and public view of social event must be taken away. This will be optional for guest or one to one social functions.
12. Alcoholic beverages shall not be purchased through the chapter treasury nor by any member of the chapter, or other designee, on behalf of the chapter.
13. In order to educate our members on the dangers and effects of alcohol, each chapter is required to sponsor at least one alcohol awareness program/presentation, as well as a date rape presentation to be attended by no less than 80% of the chapter’s membership. Chapters are encouraged to participate in additional programs outside those sponsored by its own brotherhood annually. Chapters must turn in report of presentation, no more than two weeks after presentation/s.

14. In accordance with the University of Idaho rules and regulations, no kegs, or any other common source container that calls for the use of a tap to serve alcohol, may be used on chapter property, unless a third party vendor is used and alcohol distribution thus becomes their responsibility.

15. The distribution of alcohol at leased facilities is governed by the policy stated herein, regarding underage and of age guests. Additionally, the host(s) must procure the services of a third party vendor (those who are legally licensed and insured in the state of Idaho to distribute alcohol) to serve to those that at least 21 years of age.

16. It will be the responsibility of the IFC Executive Council to perform a risk management information session for each chapter once a year. It will be required that 80% of chapter membership be in attendance. The session should cover the risk management procedures for conducting safe parties. At this time, copies of a risk management checklist can be distributed to each respective chapter.

17. It is understood that all rules and regulations and precautions not specifically referenced herein shall be governed by the host chapter(s) and its respective guidelines (this includes sober brothers, door monitors, and checking ID’s). Moreover, the chapter(s) is expected to enforce the stricter of policies if and when a difference is found between this document and the risk management policies of the respective organizations.

18. The enforcement of this policy is men’s fraternal organizations shall be carried out in accordance with Article 9 of the constitution and Article 9 of the by-laws of the University of Idaho Inter-Fraternity Council.
Appendix B Conduct Statement

The University of Idaho Interfraternity Council strives for an image of proper conduct and expects the following from its membership:

I. Chapters will respect the human dignity of all persons and will not physically, psychologically, or sexually abuse any human being.
II. Chapters will strive for academic achievement and maintain academic integrity.
III. Chapters will respect their own property and the property of others, and will not condone nor tolerate the abuse of property.
IV. Chapters will meet their financial and administrative obligations in a timely manner.
V. Chapters will maintain chapter property so that it is properly cleaned, safe and in a condition befitting of the community of which it is a part.
VI. Chapters will not condone nor tolerate the use of illegal drugs or the misuse of alcohol.
VII. Chapters will challenge all members to adhere to these interfraternal expectations and will confront those who are in violation of them.

20. Potential new members are not allowed to stay in fraternity chapter houses on the Saturday following Vandal Friday.

Appendix D Position

Financial Support

The Interfraternity Council Executive Committee and Senate have come together to realize that financial support should not be given to philanthropic causes of individual chapters from the IFC funds. This has been ratified on the basis that chapters all pay dues to the IFC and that putting that money back into renting space on campus is unnecessary when not all chapters host a philanthropy at a location that requires funding.
