

HOUSING AND RESIDENCE LIFE
2019-2020

YOUR FUTURE

Your Purpose / Our Focus

Living in the residence halls is an important part of the University of Idaho college experience giving you the opportunity to meet new people, experience new ideas and develop important study habits and life skills. Each community offers its own unique spin on independent living.

As part of our community, you will have many opportunities to influence your living environment. More than just a place to live, our residence halls are a place to learn and grow as individuals.

Our staff works with residents to create fun and engaging environments in our halls, creating a “home away from home.” More than 60 professional and student staff members have been carefully selected and trained to create and support a welcoming and inclusive living environment focused on promoting your academic and personal success.

This is the place where you will live and learn together with an amazing group of classmates, creating friendships that will last a lifetime.

On behalf of the entire Housing and Residence Life staff, we look forward to seeing you at the University of Idaho.

ENGAGE

A Connected Vandal Family and Friends Are Right Outside Your Door

We believe that a successful academic career begins with a positive social experience. Our dynamic residential communities are designed to promote student learning with positive social interactions. You will have unique opportunities to engage with students, make new friends and discover new interests.

Residents participate in a community of actively involved students who enjoy the convenient access to classes, academic resources, dining, events, personal support services and numerous leadership opportunities.

Our professional and student residence life staff is focused on the individual needs of our residents. You will find yourself surrounded by people and a community advocating for your success. Experience the ultimate “college experience,” right outside your door.

“

“Residence halls are convenient and their proximity to class is unmatched.”

RESIDENCE LIFE

The focus of our Residence Life staff is to create a fun inclusive living environment where you will feel welcomed, supported and set for academic success.

Living in our residence hall community is a great way to learn about campus traditions, get involved and enjoy new experiences. You will be close to classes, find favorite places to eat, discover new interests and develop long lasting friendships.

Research shows that on-campus living has a positive impact on academic success and students are more likely to return to school. Residents are happier, more successful and better involved when they live in the residence halls.

Residence life offers limitless opportunities to lead and contribute. Becoming involved in the Residence Hall Association or an on-campus group is a great way to explore interests, meet new people or network with professionals.

Our talented staff provides a quality learning environment and social programs to support your college experience and academic success while at the University of Idaho.

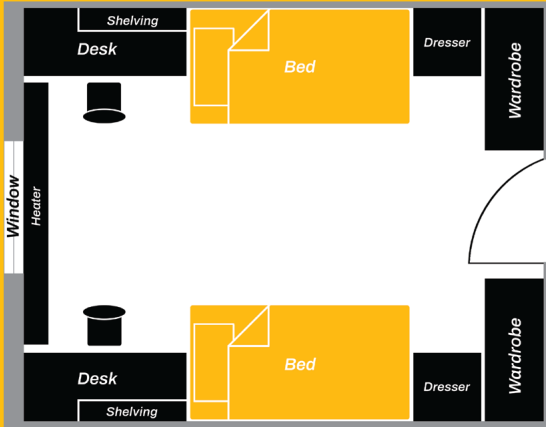

WHAT TO EXPECT...

- Assistance with adjustment to college life and navigating the world of living with roommates.
