A Message from the Director

Children delight in the everyday things, the ordinary moments that we have long since forgotten to notice. If you take a small child for a walk, they will stop to admire every rock, every tree branch, every wildflower. They don't share our sense of urgency.

This play, and the classic book that inspired it, celebrates the joy and wonder of seemingly ordinary things. Look - this is a dog! Look - these dogs are coming, and those dogs are going. Look - a red dog, and a tree that's blue. Aren't colors amazing?

The poet Christian Wiman wrote, "It is as if joy were the default setting of human emotion, not the furtive, fugitive glimpses it becomes in lives compromised by necessity, familiarity, suffering. To become like little children means, I think, to recover this sense of wonder, this excess of spirit brimming out of the body."

In our frenetic, weary world, perhaps what we need the most is to slow down, to find joy and wonder in the everyday. Because nothing, really, is ordinary. There is so much beauty, so much glory, all around us. If we could only have the eyes to see.

Kate Pemberton, director

SUPPORTED BY ASUI FINE ARTS FEE GRANT

The Kennedy Center American College Theater Festival, part of the Rubenstein Arts Access Program, is generously funded by David M. Rubenstein.

Special thanks to The Harold and Mimi Steinberg Charitable Trust for supporting the John F. Kennedy Center for the Performing Arts' Kennedy Center American College Theater Festival. Additional support is provided by The Honorable Stuart Bernstein and Wilma E. Bernstein; and the Dr. Gerald and Paula McNichols Foundation. Kennedy Center education and related artistic programming is made possible through the generosity of the National Committee for the Performing Arts.

This production is entered in the Kennedy Center American College Theater Festival (KCACTF). The aims of this national theater education program are to identify and promote quality in college-level theater production. To this end, each production entered is eligible for a response by a regional KCACTF representative, and selected students and faculty are invited to participate in KCACTF programs involving scholarships, internships, grants and awards for actors, directors, dramaturgs, playwrights, designers, stage managers and critics at both the regional and national levels.

Productions entered on the Participating level are eligible for invitation to the KCACTF regional festival and may also be considered for national awards recognizing outstanding achievement in production, design, direction and performance.

Last year more than 1,500 productions were entered in the KCACTF involving more than 200,000 students nationwide. By entering this production, our theater department is sharing in the KCACTF goals to recognize, reward, and celebrate the exemplary work produced in college and university theaters across the nation.

Cast & Artistic Team Bios (in alpha order)

KYLIE MORRIS (Blue Dog) is a student at U of I, pursuing a Bachelor of Fine Arts with an emphasis in performance. She's appeared in U of I's productions of "Cabaret," "Macbeth" and "Mr. Burns" and was the costume manager for U of I's productions of "A Christmas Carol" and "Into the Woods." She was the assistant choreographer for "Mr. Burns," the dance coach for "Into the Woods" and choreographed the U of I student-created production of "The Wife of Fabian Vitalik."

LUKE OWEN (MC Dog) is a first year B.F.A student at U of I. From Couer d'Alene, Luke found his passion for theatre in high school, in both lighting design and acting. He's excited to make his first U of I appearance on the Fagerbakke Stage as M.C Dog!

KATE PEMBERTON (Director) is thrilled to be directing her first production at University of Idaho! She has been involved in several productions at U of I, including playing Alice in "A Christmas Carol" and performing in "Thanatos Unmasked." She also worked as producing intern for Idaho Repertory Theater this past summer. Previously, she worked as arts director for the city of Sioux Center, Iowa, producing and directing local theater. Favorite acting roles include Belle in "Beauty & the Beast" (Orange City Tulip Festival) and Pamela in "The 39 Steps" (Sioux Center Summer Celebration), and her favorite directing experience was "Into the Woods" (SC Summer Celebration). Kate lives in Moscow with her husband and four children

CHRISTIAN REED (Music Director) is a local voice teacher, musical theatre specialist, and U of I Alumni with a master's in music. Though classically trained, Christian's passion has always been for musical theatre. You may have seen his work in the U of I's productions of "Amelie" "Into the Woods," "Cabaret" or "Pirates of Penzance."

KARI WILSEY (Hattie), a senior at the University of Idaho, is pursuing her BFA in theatre performance. She welcomes you to "Go Dog, Go!" Some of Kari's most recent work at U of I includes performances in "Amelie" as Blind Beggar, "Mr. Burns" as Edna and "The Imaginary Invalid" as Louison, and "Glassheart" as Only at the Lewis and Clark State College, for which they received an Irene-Ryan Nomination for KCACTF. Prior to her endeavors at the University of Idaho, Kari was a proud cast member many stage productions, including "Sweeney Todd," "The Importance of Being Earnest," "Beauty and the Beast" and "The Drowsy Chaperone."

Cast & Artistic Team Bios (in alpha order)

SAMI BURTON (Understudy/Swing) is from Snohomish, Washington, and recently transferred to the University of Idaho. Sami is a second-year theatre arts major, and a first-year dance minor. She's performed in numerous shows, some of her favorites include "Cabaret," "Addams Family," "Once Upon a Mattress" and "The Prom." Sami is excited to continue her theatre career and thanks her supporters for the encouragement that is sent her way.

REBA DECKER (Stage Manager) is a junior at U of I and from the small town of Hope, Idaho. Her previous theater experience includes assistant stage manager for "Imaginary Invalid" and wardrobe supervisor for "Measure for Measure" during the previous U of I theater season. She thanks everyone for coming out to support the cast and crew.

DAVID HARLAN (Technical Supervisor & Stage Directions) is an instructor in theater and English at U of I and the founding artistic director of Moscow Art Theatre (Too). He received his MFA in playwriting and directing from U of I in 2010 and has worked with U of I theater and Idaho Repertory Theater as an actor, director, designer and technician for the past 15 years.

MCKINLEY KIRK (Green Dog) is a junior from Boise, double majoring in theatre and Spanish. She is a BFA candidate with an emphasis in performance. McKinley previously appeared in U of I's productions of "Macbeth," "A Christmas Carol," "Measure for Measure" and "Amélie." She hopes you enjoy the show!

STEPHANIE LUTZ (Lighting Designer) has been active in academic and professional theater spaces for the last 12 years, receiving a BFA from University of Idaho in 2021. "Go, Dog. Go!" being their 105th theatrical production designed. She also has been House Designer and Resident Designer for Nightclubs, Cabaret Venues, and Concert Halls including The Fisher Center at Bard and for VenueTech Management. She enjoys making light art and doing performance artworks outside of theater as well as reading philosophy in relation to theater arts.

JACOB MATTHEW MCGAUGHEY (Red Dog, Sound Designer) is a second year at the U of I from Coeur d'Alene and is so excited to be part of the "Go, Dog. Go!" team. His most recent roles include Nino Quincampoix in last fall's production of "Amélie," Ensemble in Spokane Valley Summer Theatre's "Bright Star" and Pompey in U of I's "Measure for Measure." Jacob thanks the cast and creative team for their hard work, and his friends and family for their never-ending support!
