ADJUDICATORS AND CLINICIANS

FREE FLIGHT

For several years this incredible Jazz quartet has amazed their audiences with an unbelievable mix of Jazz and Classical music. Their music ranges from Bach to Brubeck and from Debussy to Kellaway. This fine group features the flute of Jim Walker, principal flutist of the Los Angeles Philharmonic, keyboardist and composer Milcho Leviev, bass player Jim Lacefield, and percussionist Ralph Humphrey. This may be your first chance to hear a true Jazz/Classical union.

DIANNE REEVES

This fantastic performer returns to Jazz '84 after having totally captivated her audience in last year's festival. A professional singer since her teens, Dianne has performed with Jazz greats Clark Terry and Louie Bellson; been featured with Count Basie and Chick Corea; and recorded with Stanley Turrentine and Ronnie Laws. She has also toured as featured vocalist with Sergio Mendes.

SARAH VAUGHAN

Sarah Vaughan is a living, breathing Jazz legend whose star still shines as bright as ever. Downbeat Magazine has nominated her as Best Female Vocalist for 18 consecutive years. A 1981 Emmy winner for the PBS Television Special — "Sarah Vaughan Sings George Gershwin," she has also been nominated Best Female Jazz Singer by the National Academy of Recording Arts and Sciences for 8 consecutive years. In 1982 she won a Grammy for the Best Performance by a Female Vocalist.

BILL PERKINS, saxophonist.

He has toured and recorded extensively with the Woody Herman and Stan Kenton Orchestras. Currently a member of the Doc Severinsen Tonight Show Orchestra, he has also recorded as a leader of his own group and can be heard on several Steely Dan albums, as well as on a recent Woody Herman album. Bill is the inventor of the SAXOPHONE-SYNTHESIZER-INTERFACE currently being featured by Ernie Watts. Bill is also co-inventor of the TRUMPET-SYNTHESIZER-INTERFACE now being featured by trumpeter Al Vizzutti.

LIONEL HAMPTON

Still a favorite among the young, especially at a time when the renewed popularity of jazz is at its peak, Hamp has been busy doing shows at theatres, high schools, colleges and nightclubs around the country. High on his list of recent triumphs is the spectacular jazz special "One Night Stand," which reunited him with many of his old playing cronies, including Gene Krupa, Mel Torme, Buddy Rich, etc., and a hit Broadway revue with Bette Midler that broke all house records and was sold out through the entire 10-week engagement.

The jazz great's musical contributions to the world have become legendary. He has a host of awards and honors and even composed a major symphonic work, "King David Suite." Known widely as "King of the Vibes" and "Master of the Drums." Hamp has won the "vibes" seat in Playboy's Annual All-Star jazz and Pop Poll ever since its inception 18 years ago.

Announcing the First Annual Sandpoint Festival Orchestra Camp

THE FESTIVAL at Sandpoint

This marks an exciting first for us. The one week camp will be held at the beautiful Schweitzer Basin ski area in Sandpoint and is a cooperative effort of the Festival at Sandpoint, The Spokane Symphony, The Spokane Junior Symphony, and the U of I School of Music. Enrollment is open to all string players and limited numbers of wind and percussion players. Staffing the camp will be members of the Spokane Symphony and the School of Music faculty. The dates are August 5 to August 11. 1 unit of university level credit will be available to qualified juniors and seniors.

WORKSHOPS FOR MUSIC TEACHERS

1) "Hands On" Instrumental Skills. The intense one week (2 credit) workshop will be a 'hands on' experience where attendees will actually play all of the instruments in classes and bands conducted by U of I staff members and guests. The dates (June 18 to June 22) coincide with our Junior High School Music Camp.

2) The Teaching of Jazz. Dan Bukvich, Lynn Skinner and Greg Yasinitsky of Washington State University will be involved in this session dealing with jazz piano skills, instrumental and vocal jazz arranging, rehearsal techniques and improvisational skills. (June 25-July 6)

3) Piano Technical Work and Tuning - an intensive three-day workshop intended to provide an introduction to the art and science of maintaining and tuning pianos. (July 21-23)

4) String Chamber Music - Participants will form chamber ensembles for coaching by University of Idaho, Washington State University and guest faculty. (July 23-August 1).

Co-op Workshop (offered through Washington State University). Materials and Methods for Music Teachers - "Current Programs and Trends in the Teaching of Elementary Music" in 3 parts - June 15-17; 18-20; 21-23.

SUMMER SCHOOL (June 11-August 3)

Graduate courses or directed studies will be available in applied music, theory, history and music education.

CAMPS

1984 marks the 48th consecutive year for U of I Summer Music Camps. The Senior High Camp (graduates of grades 9-12) runs from June 10-17. June 17-23 are the dates for the Junior High Camp (graduates of grades 6-8). The camps will offer instruction in voice, piano, and all wind and percussion instruments. Performance experience in jazz band and jazz choir will be offered as well as concert band and chorus. String instruction will be available during the Junior High Camp. Orchestra Camp at Sandpoint August 5 to 11. 1 unit of university level credit available to qualified juniors and seniors.
