

How to Apply for the Environmental Education and Science Communication M.N.R.

Application and Deadlines

We accept applications for students to begin in the Fall Semester only. You must select a Fall Admission Term on your graduate admissions application. Applications will be accepted anytime throughout the year. Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis until all positions have been filled for the fall semester. Processing of applications can take 4 – 6 weeks.

You have the ability to save your progress and return to the application. Before you begin make sure you have a digital copy of, your statement of objectives, resume, a copy of the completed area of emphasis form, an official transcript, and three names and emails of references, plus a credit card to pay the application fee.

Applications will be reviewed on a rolling basis once complete. Curious about your status? Visit <https://www.uidaho.edu/admissions/graduate> to view your status in the application process.

PART TWO

Upload the following documents within your application (For additional information on the documents, select Documents Required for Application)

- Statement of purpose titled "The McCall Outdoor Science School" that addresses the following prompt:

This immersive graduate experience is academically rigorous and compressed into a short timeframe. Graduate work requires independent and collaborative problem-solving, creativity, and willingness to learn and struggle, often in the face of uncertainty. Students will be members of a professional learning community that collaborates with peers, K12 students, and teachers, faculty, and staff. It often requires long hours and significant intellectual as well as emotional labor. In a one-page essay, please describe how your experiences, skills, and motivations will help you to thrive in this graduate program.

- Three letters of recommendation will be required to complete your application packet. On the online application, you will be prompted to enter names and contact information for three references. These three people will be sent requests for a letter of recommendation from the University and will send those back directly.
- Official Transcripts/ academic credentials. These must be the official version from your University or College. You can upload into the application or mail them to:
