Enrollment

THIS PAGE INCLUDES:

>> Enrollment

On this page, enter the number of candidates for an initial teaching credential who are enrolled in the initial teacher preparation programs within your institution of higher education (IHE) or organization. Do not report on the total number of students enrolled in the entire IHE. Do not include individuals who currently hold a teaching credential and are seeking additional licenses or endorsements, or individuals preparing for school-based careers other than classroom teachers (e.g., administrators, guidance counselors).

The Department recognizes that in many cases, candidates voluntarily report their race/ethnicity and gender data, and that in some cases, candidates may choose not to report this information. Please report on the race/ethnicity data you have available, though the data may not be complete. It is not expected that the sum of the enrolled students reported by race/ethnicity or by gender will necessarily equal the total number of students enrolled.

If your IHE offers both traditional and alternative programs, be sure to enter the candidates enrolled in the appropriate reports. For the traditional report, provide only the candidates enrolled in traditional programs within the IHE. For the alternative report, provide only the candidates enrolled in the alternative programs within the IHE.

After entering the enrollment data, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

Enrollment

For the purpose of Title II reporting, an enrolled student is defined as a student who has been admitted to a teacher preparation program, but who has not completed the program during the academic year being reported. An individual who completed the program during the academic year being reported is counted as a program completer and not an enrolled student.

Provide the number of students in the teacher preparation program in the following categories. Note that you must report on the number of students by ethnicity and race separately. Individuals who are non-Hispanic/Latino will be reported in one of the race categories. Also note that individuals can belong to one or more racial groups, so the sum of the members of each racial category may not necessarily add up to the total number of students enrolled. Teachers Prepared

On this page, enter the number of program completers by the subject area in which they were prepared to teach, and by their academic majors. Note that an individual can be counted in more than one academic major and subject area. For example, if an individual is prepared to teach Elementary Education and Mathematics, that individual should be counted in both subject areas. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major or subject area, you may leave the cell blank. Please use the "Other" category sparingly, if there is no similar subject area or academic major listed. In these cases, you should use the text box to describe the subject area(s) and/or the academic major(s) counted in the "Other" category.

If your IHE offers both traditional and alternative programs, be sure to enter the program completers in the appropriate reports. For the traditional report, provide only the program completers in traditional programs within the IHE. For the alternative report, provide only the program completers for the alternative programs within the IHE.

After entering the teachers prepared data, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

Teachers Prepared by Academic Major

Please provide the number of teachers prepared by academic major for academic year 2015-16. For the purposes of this section, number prepared means the number of program completers. "Academic major" refers to the actual major(s) declared by the program completer. An individual can be counted in more than one academic major. If no individuals were prepared in a particular academic major, please leave that cell blank. (§205\(b\)\(1\)\(H\))

Please note that the list of majors includes several "Teacher Education" majors, as well as several noneducation majors. Please use care in entering your majors to ensure education-specific majors and non-education majors are counted correctly. For example, if an individual majored in Chemistry, that individual should be counted in the "Chemistry" academic major category rather than the "Teacher Education–Chemistry" category.

Program Completers

On this page, enter the total number of individuals who completed the program in AY 2015-16 and the two prior academic years. If you submitted an IPRC last year, the number of program completers for the two prior academic years are pre-loaded from your prior year's report.

A program completer is a person who has met all the requirements of a state-approved teacher preparation program. Program completers include all those who are documented as having met such requirements. Documentation may take the form of a degree, institutional certificate, program credential, transcript or other written proof of having met the program's requirements. In applying this definition, the fact that an individual has or has not been recommended to the state for initial certification or licensure may not be used as a criterion for determining who is a program completer.

An individual cannot be classified as both enrolled and as a program completer at the same time. An enrolled individual is not a program completer. Once an individual has met all the requirements of a state-approved teacher preparation program and becomes a program completer, the individual is no longer classified as enrolled.

After entering the program completers, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

2. Provide a description of the evidence that your program uses to show that it prepares teachers to integrate technology effectively into curricula and instruction, and to use technology effectively to collect, manage, and analyze data in order to improve teaching and learning for the purpose of increasing student academic achievement. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the four elements listed above are not currently in place.

Teacher Candidates learn to integrate, both electronic and curricular technology resources. They participate in small and large group discussion of course texts through the use of Blackboard and Blackboard Collaborate. They also learn about Web 2.0 technologies and how to use them to collaborate, educate, and disseminate. These online technologies have been addressed and utilized in EDCI 463/563 Literacy across Content Areas, and EDCI 329 Elementary Science Methods. Other technologies addressed through pre-service teacher course work include: digital presentations, Smartboard™ presentations, Blackboard, on-line science curricula, monitoring probes and sensor, and hand-held recording devices. Curricular technologies include: FOSS and other kit based- science curricula, and many specially designed instructor teaching tools, such as "Globe/Overhead/Incandescent Lamp model of solar system, Battery/Bulb simple series and parallel circuit models. Elementary pre-service teachers are also exposed to Geographic Information System (GIS) software in their EDCI 328 Elementary Social Studies Methods course. Elementary methods students learn to use the instructional program Geometer's sketchpad in the Math courses. Faculty members incorporate reflective blogs in their methods courses where students view internet resources (websites/ video clips of effective literacy practices) and reflect and respond via blog. They introduce a unit on 21st century literacy skills (demonstrating pedagogies to move students beyond viewing traditional views of literacy and students create a digital literacy project incorporating digital videos to explore their understandings about literacy instruction and their visions for teaching literacy. Secondary Math methods teacher candidates use audio and/or video cameras to record themselves teaching, to reflect on that teaching, and to inform instructional decisions. They upload video to a web site or burn a CD of their work. They also upload files to TaskStream and Blackboard, and use the internet to find teaching and learning materials. Students post reflections and/or participate in on-line discussions. They plan and teach lessons using this program. Pre-service teachers are also introduced to software such as Inspiration, Kidspiration, and ReadPlease. These tools provide opportunities for all children to engage in instructional activities and support cognitive and affective development through novelty, organization, and mediation. They also learn to use calculators as instructional and thinking tools at all levels, K-12. In EDCI 201, 302, and EDCI 431 all students use Blackboard to support students' learning. Assignments, syllabi, and resources are placed on Blackboard for reading and reference. Students in 201 participate in the online component (MyEducationLab) of Parkay's Becoming a Teacher. This program has additional readings, study guides, videos, website resources, and assessment tools to enrich the textbook's materials. Students in all three classes learn technological presentation skills to enhance instruction: Youtube videos, PowerPoint presentations, recording devices for interviews, laptops and document cameras are all used by instructors and students alike. Some students in 201 also participate in an email/Skype project to connect with English Language Learners in Ukraine. Students explore assessment techniques and grading software programs in both 302 and methods classes; analysis of standardized test scoring and academic achievement are addressed at all levels. The soon to be adopted state-designed lesson plan format, which specifically includes the principles of universal design for learning, will be incorporated into EDCI classes at all levels; students currently use a standardized lesson plan format placed on Blackboard for designing lessons. In addition, all students use Taskstream to participate in self-assessment of their teaching dispositions, to create assignments following standardized rubrics, and to submit course signature assignments for evaluation and commentary. The overall goal regarding technology integration is the preparation of prospective teachers regarding the potential uses of technology, as well as how to teach students the value of technology for multiple uses. Teacher candidates learn to use technology to manage data to improve teaching and learning through formative assessment by demonstrating to teachers how to collect and analyze student written responses to course material for indicators of misperceptions and/or misunderstandings of lesson objectives and plan future instruction accordingly. For general purpose technology, teachers learn effective uses for themselves and their students of productivity software such as Word and PowerPoint for various written and presentation activities related to specific disciplines. For data collection and research, teachers and their future students become familiar with data manipulation software (Excel) and devices (accelerometers and water chemistry probes) to collect digital data used to examine and report particular science phenomena. For assessment purposes, teachers learn to use digital devices for self-reflection activities to help determine teacher effectiveness. Teachers also become familiar with assessment and recording software to influence overall teaching effectiveness. Grading programs are used to compile accurate data, and to use data for formative and summative purposes. Also, teacher candidates are taught how to use technology for test construction based on the Basic Teaching Model with attention to item analysis, reliability, validation, and subsequent data analysis. This is conducted through data management programs (such as Microsoft Excel). Students in EDSP 426 Developing Instructional Programs are required to complete an assistive technology assignment. Outcomes for this assignment include:

- Defining assistive technology
- Differentiate between assistive technology devices and assistive technology services
- Understand how assistive technology helps students with disabilities gain access to the curriculum
- Understand that the IEP team is responsible for considering assistive technology for students with disabilities
- Access resources that support the use of assistive technology for students with disabilities

After the EDSP 426 students complete the assignment they are required to reflect in writing on the assignment, respond to peer's reflections and take a formal assessment on the outcomes above. Please see the link below to the module students are required to complete as part of the assistive technology assignment and as part of the course requirements for EDSP 426. <http://iris.peabody.vanderbilt.edu/at/cwrap.htm> The Basic Teaching Model holds that if the performance assessment component is good then this warrants that learning is sufficient enough to begin the next unit. If the performance assessment component yields insufficient learning, the teacher must get on the feedback loop and re-examine each component to determine the area of difficulty, be it instructional objectives, entering behaviors, instructional methodology, or the assessment instrument itself. Depending upon the importance of the educational material as requisite to future learning and/or the necessity of the performance assessment, teachers may need to re-teach and/or retest. The University of Idaho also has the DOCEO center which serves as a focal point for teacher educators and professional development in the use of technology and technology integration in the classroom. Teacher candidates learn to use TaskStream™ as a web-based folio system and assessment system linking standards to assignments and generating and using rubrics for assessments. They access the literacy standards for their particular grade level through the Internet. They complete lesson plans in word processing that follow a certain format. They can access this format on the blackboard™ site. They obtain the syllabus and assessment packet on the blackboard™ site. When they make their presentations in class, they often use the Internet and such things as U-Tube to motivate and introduce their subjects.

On this page, review the questions about how your program trains general education teachers and special education teachers. For the purposes of these questions, general education teachers means those who are not specifically prepared as special education teachers. If you submitted an IPRC last year, this section is pre-loaded from your prior year's report; please review and update as necessary.

After reviewing and updating as necessary, save the page using the floating save box at the bottom of the page.

Teacher Training

1. Does your program prepare general education teachers to:

a. teach students with disabilities effectively

- Yes
 No

b. participate as a member of individualized education program teams

- Yes
 No

c. teach students who are limited English proficient effectively

2. Provide a description of the evidence your program uses to show that it prepares general education teachers to teach students with disabilities effectively, including training related to participation as a member of individualized education program teams, as defined in section 614(d)(1)(B) of the Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, and to effectively teach students who are limited English proficient. Include planning activities and a timeline if any of the three elements listed above are not currently in place.

Students in 201 study the requirements of IDEA, the statistical evidence of its impact, and the growing needs of the school population. In EDCI 302, students research techniques and strategies to address the learning needs of diverse populations, including those students with disabilities and those with limited English proficiency. Research is discussed and shared with classmates in a formal presentation, and accommodations are included in lesson plans. Students placed in practicum experiences adjust their lessons for accommodations by conferring with their practicum mentor teachers. Methods students design and teach lessons to a wide variety of students with diverse needs; strategies are thoroughly researched and implemented in the methods classroom and the practicum classroom. In EDCI 466 Literacy Assessment and Instruction teacher education candidates in elementary education and completing a state literacy endorsement, read, review, and practice the use of multiple assessment techniques and tools for monitoring ALL students' literacy skills and language development. The focus of the class text and assignments is to support candidates in assessing students for language needs in general and as individuals, and using the results of these assessments for developing further instruction, including students with disabilities, 504 and IEP, Response to Intervention, and English Language Learners. EDCI 466 specifically addresses the factors of how "non-educational" factors like socio-economic and cultural factors can effect language development and how these variations might manifest in literacy development. EDSP 300 Educating for Exceptionalities prepares general education pre-service teachers to participate as a member of individualized education program teams.
