SUBJECT: FY2024 Student Tuition and Fees

The University of Idaho collaborative fee setting process is now concluded, and our proposal will be forwarded to the University of Idaho's Board of Regents for action at its April 25 – 26, 2023 meeting here on the Moscow campus. A budget presentation and open forum will be held March 30, at 3:30 pm in the Clearwater/Whitewater rooms in the ISUB to obtain final University reaction to our proposal.

I am grateful to each of the students who participated in the dedicated activity fee process, and extend a special acknowledgement to each of you in leadership positions. Student participation and leadership is very important as we work through the issues associated with student fees, and I am pleased to learn of the strong and principled efforts that you exhibited. I am also grateful for the efforts and leadership of Blaine Eckles and Trina Mahoney in working with you.

In accordance with State Board of Education policy, mandatory fees will be presented in the following categories:

Attached please find a schedule of proposed changes for FY2024. These changes reflect fee increases needed to support a $1.20 per hour change in employee compensation (CEC) for fee-funded units. The proposed tuition increase, estimated to generate an additional $4.1M in tuition revenue, is needed to fund the portion of the $1.20 per hour CEC for general education-funded positions not covered by state general funds, benefits cost increases and a portion of the impact of inflation. Adjustments to tuition and/or fees may be necessary should CEC or other assumptions change. A final determination on tuition and fees will be made by the Regents of the University of Idaho in April. Until that time, you may provide feedback to this notice by emailing studentfees@uidaho.edu or contacting Trina Mahoney, Asst. VP University Budget and Planning directly at tmahoney@uidaho.edu or 208.885.4387.

Again, thank you for your leadership, spirit of collaboration and commitment to the University of Idaho.
