Money Skills for Life

Marlon Monkey wants some Bananas, but the only way to get them is to trade with Tucker Toucan. This program functions like a children's book and can be read slide by slide to the students. It is more than just a book though because this story allows the students to choose their own adventure. Use this program to help guide your students and allow them to discover the consequences of saving and borrowing.

Program Features

- Designed for Children Ages 7-10
- 3 different possible endings depending on student choices
- Viewable Online or Free to Download
- Target Concepts: Saving, Borrowing, Interest, Credit Scores
- Extra Teaching Resources and Videos (Online or Download)
