SUBJECT: Dean Kahler Appointed Vice Provost for Strategic Enrollment Management

I am pleased to announce that Dean Kahler has been named vice provost for strategic enrollment management, effective October 17, 2016.

Dean comes to us from the University of Arkansas at Little Rock where he has served as the inaugural vice chancellor for enrollment management since 2012. Prior to that, he was at Western Kentucky University, Bowling Green for 10 years. While in Bowling Green, he served as the executive director of Navitas (2010-2012), associate vice president for enrollment management (2007-2010) and director of the Office of Admissions (2002-2007).

Dean is engaged in national conversations about enrollment management and student success through active participation in the Arkansas ACT Council, the EAST Initiative Board, College Board and with Association for Collegiate Registrars and Admissions Officers.

Dean holds a bachelor's degree in criminal justice from Winona State University and a master's in public administration and doctorate in educational administration higher education from Southern Illinois University.

I would like to extend a special thanks to search committee chair Brian Foisy, the entire search committee and all of those who participated in effecting a successful search.

Please join me in welcoming Dean to the Vandal family.
