UI Biologist Heads Summer Research to Increase Salmon, Trout and Lamprey

In an effort to boost stocks of steelhead trout, Chinook salmon and Pacific lamprey, a team of University of Idaho researchers will begin a three-faceted study in the coming months. A $2.7 million grant from the U.S. Army Corps of Engineers is supporting the work. Read more.

CLASS Has Moved Home

The College of Letters, Arts and Social Sciences Dean's Office and General Studies advising is back in the Administration Building, Room 112.

Campus Mail

If your office will be closed at any time this week before or after the Independence Day holiday, please contact Campus Mail Services at campusmail@uidaho.edu so they can hold your departmental mail.

Registration Open for R Workshop Offered by Statistical Science Department

Register now for the department of statistics' "Introduction to R" workshop Aug. 15-16, from 9 a.m. - noon. The R statistical language is a free, open-source, multi-platform program that is widely used in many research areas. The workshop will cover topics such as starting R, reading data into R, manipulating data, preparing graphical displays, performing statistical analyses using linear and generalized linear models, and applications from several research areas. The fee for the workshop is $100 for faculty and staff, and $50 for students. A limited number of seats are available. To register, call the department at 885-2929 or email us at stat@uidaho.edu.

Register for New Employee and Benefits Orientation

Register for New Employee Orientation at 8:15 a.m. Monday and Benefits Orientation is at 1 p.m. Monday. Go to the PDL training portal for more information and registration.

Today's Register is a publication of the University of Idaho designed to share policy issues, news and events with the campus community. As the primary communication medium for official information, it is delivered to all faculty and staff via e-mail daily during the work week. This publication only prints items of university interest. Events must be sponsored by official university units or organizations. All material is subject to editing according to space, style and policy requirements.
