

TODAY'S REGISTER

Feb.11 to Feb. 17, 2013

To get earlier notices of events, the new calendar can help you. Try it:
www.uidaho.edu/calendar.

---

NEWS:

- Street and Parking Restrictions for the Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival
- Stepping into the Virtual World: Idaho staff and students use virtual technology to improve the real world
- John Clayton Talks Jazz Festival
- What's New at the 2013 Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival
- 2013 Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival Offers Workshops with Artists and Educators
- President Nellis Announces Creation of Two Task Forces
- McClure Symposium on Federal Fiscal Issues

ANNOUNCEMENTS:

- 2013 Staff Awards Due Today
- Open Interview with Candidate for Director of Employment Services
- Get Your Head in the Game

EVENTS:

- Today's events
  - Tomorrow's events
  - This week's events
-

Street and Parking Restrictions for the Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival

The University of Idaho will host thousands of visitors for the Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival Feb. 20-23, and many will be transported via bus or van. Due to the high amount of vehicular traffic and pedestrians on campus, some streets and parking lots will have restrictions during the festival. Read more.

Stepping into the Virtual World: Idaho staff and students use virtual technology to improve the real world

Imagine designing the layout of a 2D world, uploading it to a program, and suddenly being able to walk around in that world. Sound a bit like something from the movie Inception? Well Idaho's Human Factors program in the psychology department has turned that concept into something tangible with the recent installation of a virtual reality lab. Read more.

John Clayton Talks Jazz Festival

Grammy award winning musician and Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival artistic director, John Clayton, discusses the impact this annual music festival has on students. Read more.

What's New at the 2013 Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival

For 46 years, the Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival has inspired futures through jazz. Some of the highlights of this year's festival include: Lionel Hampton Youth Jazz Orchestra — Vibraphone player Warren Wolf will appear with the Lionel Hampton Youth Jazz Orchestra on Saturday, Feb. 23. Wolf was selected as the vibes player for this year's festival, upholding the tradition established by the festival's namesake and early vibes pioneer, Lionel Hampton. Read more.

2013 Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival Offers Workshops with Artists and Educators

The 2013 Lionel Hampton Jazz Festival, which runs from Feb. 20-23 in Moscow, Idaho, will offer workshops by world-class jazz educators, musicians and University of Idaho faculty. In addition to music focused workshops, the festival offers numerous dance workshops and interdisciplinary "Thinking About College" workshops that explore the relationships between the university's academic disciplines and jazz. Read more.

President Nellis Announces Creation of Two Task Forces

University of Idaho President M. Duane Nellis continues to demonstrate his commitment to reassuring campus safety. As part of this commitment, he announced today the formation of two task forces to evaluate university policies regarding alcohol and substance abuse among students university-wide and to examine the university's relationship with fraternities and sororities. Read more.

McClure Symposium on Federal Fiscal Issues

The University of Idaho will host the McClure Symposium on Federal Fiscal Issues on Tuesday, Feb. 19 at the Idaho State Capitol Auditorium. Idaho Public Television will air the program live from 8-10 p.m. The program will provide regional and national focus on our nation's fiscal condition and possible solutions. The event will include a panel discussion by some of the nation's most prominent leaders in these deliberations. Read more.

Announcements

2013 Staff Awards Due Today

Nominations for the 2013 Outstanding Employee Awards, Staff Educational Awards, Outstanding Team Award, and the Lawrence McBride Prize are now open and due today Wednesday, Feb. 13, 2013. The Outstanding Staff Awards honor U-Idaho non-faculty staff members who are doing an outstanding job in the areas of quality of service, exceptional effort, initiative and interpersonal relations. Read more.

Open Interview with Candidate for Director of Employment Services

HR invites you to a short, open interview session with Paul Eichenberg, candidate for director of employment services on Friday, Feb. 15 from 2:30 – 3: p.m. in the Gold room in the SUB. Eichenberg has over 20 years of human resources experience and a masters degree with an emphasis on HR management. He currently works as the Human Resources manager with Spokane Library District and has previously worked for the City of Pullman and the City of Las Cruces.

Get Your Head in the Game

Get your head in the game and register for Professional Development and Learning's "How to Manage Priorities and Time" on Feb. 19, 11–noon in Admin 217. Register for this and other classes, like "How to Get Started with Adobe Photoshop," Feb. 21 and "Benefits Orientation," Feb. 19, at the PDL training portal.

---

Today's Register is a publication of the University of Idaho designed to share policy issues, news and events with the campus community. As the primary communication medium for official information, it is delivered to all faculty and staff via e-mail daily during the work week. This publication only prints items of university interest. Events must be sponsored by official university units or organizations. All material is subject to editing according to space, style and policy requirements.

Submit calendar items or announcements. View past editions of Today's Register here.