- 1. There are inherent risks of injury in intramural activities. The University of Idaho does not provide health or accident protection for participants. The University and any of its employees are not liable for injuries which might be sustained while participating. It is the participant's responsibility to notify the Intramural Sports Director of any physical condition which may affect participation in this activity. If insurance protection is desired, the participant must provide it himself/herself. Insurance protection is strongly recommended!
- 2. We ask for your full cooperation in following intramural official's/supervisor's instructions regarding proper conduct, proper use of equipment, facilities and adherence to the rules of the intramural activity. We look forward to your participation in a productive, enjoyable and safe intramural program.
- 3. Check your Intramural Handbook in regard to eligibility, protests, rescheduling, etc.
- 4. Team sports are organized using INSTANT SCHEDULING, which is a method in which teams select the day they desire to play on a first come-first served basis. Entries for team sports will open one week before the entry deadline.
- 5. Complete schedules will be available on Wednesday, March 6 (at the Captains meeting) in Student Recreation Center Classroom at 5 pm.
- 6. An individual may only play on one Co-Rec team. An illegal player will force a team to forfeit.

TEAN	/I NAME
	PARTICIPAT	TION AGREEMENT
1.	I hereby grant Intramural Sports permission to charge a fee to my University account in the event that my intramural team forfeits its scheduled game. The first forfeit will cost me $30.00, however, my team will still be eligible to finish league play. My team's second forfeit will cost me an additional $30.00 ($60.00 total) and disqualify my team from further competition.
2.	I understand that this team must be represented at the Captain's meeting or we will not be eligible for the playoffs. I have read and understand the information on pages one and two and have reviewed and discussed this information with my team members.
