Dear alumni and friends:

Join us on this exclusively chartered river cruise aboard the deluxe AMADEUS QUEEN, one of the finest ships to ply the waterways of Europe. Celebrate the beauty of Holland and Flanders in springtime, when the tulip fields are in full bloom. Visit FLORIADExpo 2022 “Growing Green Cities,” the world’s largest horticultural expo, held only once every 10 years.

Discover the true essence of RIVER LIFE® in the Low Countries. Our expert-guided tours explore seven UNESCO World Heritage sites including Amsterdam’s house-lined canals, medieval Bruges, and four of the historical belfries included in the Belfries of Belgium. Experience fascinating visits to the world-famous Keukenhof Gardens, Antwerp and Ghent. See the windmills of Kinderdijk, watch craftspeople create “Delft Blue” porcelain and tour the world-class Kröller-Müller Museum. Learn more about modern life and the cultural heritage of the Netherlands during an exclusive RIVER LIFE® Forum with local residents.

Delight in specially arranged CULTURAL ENRICHMENTS, including a privately chartered small boat canal cruise. Enjoy an included, guided excursion in every port, deluxe accommodations and all meals—an excellent value. Reserve now while space is still available.

Sincerely,

Kathy Barnard
Executive Director of Alumni Relations

Office of Alumni Relations Disclaimer
The University of Idaho, through its Office of Alumni Relations, is pleased to provide this service of facilitating travel opportunities for its alumni and friends. We strive to work with the best partners to make available interesting and enriching travel options for University of Idaho alums. Please note that the university does not conduct tours, nor does it act as an agent for guests interested in tours. The Office of Alumni Relations acts as a facilitator with tour operators, with whom tour participants make arrangements for completing travel. We’re pleased to act as a liaison with tour operators should you have any questions or concerns that may arise before, during or after your tour. The Office of Alumni Relations encourages you to familiarize yourself thoroughly with the tour operator’s cancellation and refund policies, and also to investigate available services such as trip cancellation insurance. The university is not responsible for changes to trips or travel arrangements, or for losses or additional expenses resulting from travel. The Office of Alumni Relations reserves the right to withdraw its affiliation with any individual tour should conditions warrant. (The University of Idaho Office of Alumni Relations would like to continue sending you information on travel opportunities with “Vandal Voyagers.” However, if you wish to not receive future travel offerings or other notifications of commercial opportunities from the Office of Alumni Relations via mailings or email, please notify alumni@uidaho.edu or phone 208-885-6154.)

The safety and well-being of our travelers remains our highest priority. All passengers traveling on our programs are required to present confirmation of a full COVID-19 vaccination, and, as well may have to produce evidence of a recent negative COVID test. All our staff are committed to adhering to all health and safety protocols from the start of your trip to the end as directed by the United States Center for Disease Control and Prevention, overseas health officials, as well as those protocols mandated by your cruise company (if applicable). Detailed protocol information tailored to your travel program will be mailed to you along with additional pre-departure information.

The Hague Post-Program Option

Custom-designed and intimate, this signature travel program will immerse you in the daily life of the Low Countries. There is no better time to visit the Netherlands than during spring, when the legendary gardens of Keukenhof put on their glorious flower show—with over seven million tulips, daffodils, hyacinths and other flowers blossoming across 79 acres of woodland.

The Golden Age of the Netherlands is alive in the iconic works of its master painters—from Johannes Vermeer to Pieter Brueghel the Elder—and in its flourishing landscapes and remarkably preserved medieval towns, where gabled homes line cobblestone streets and peaceful canals. During this comprehensive cruise along the great Dutch and Flemish waterways, experience firsthand the distinct heritage, cultural traditions and friendly people of Holland and Flanders.

Floriade Expo 2022

World's largest horticultural expo, held once every 10 years!

Enjoy a once-in-a-lifetime opportunity to see flora and horticulture from countries around the world. With a theme of “Growing Green Cities,” Floriade Expo 2022 inspires visions of a greener tomorrow—showcasing global innovations for a more sustainable, healthier and happier future. Explore Floriade Expo 2022’s uniquely created Arboretum—a living library of more than 3,000 tree, plant and flower species alphabetically arranged by botanic name and filled with spectacular colors and scents. Marvel at nearly 2,000 trees on the expo grounds that have been sent from growers across the Netherlands. Enjoy an optional cable car ride that showcases the skyline of the growing “green city” of Almere and the breathtaking venues of Floriade Park.

Amsterdam, the Netherlands

In Amsterdam, one of Europe’s most enchanting cities, canals weave between handsome merchant houses, charming houseboats and world-renowned museums and galleries.

Cultural Enrichment:
A private cruise through the UNESCO-designated canal district offers a unique look at the integral role waterways have played in the culture of this city, which began as a simple fishing village and flourished into the 17th century’s foremost economic center. Stroll through a vivid tableau of blooming tulips as far as the eye can see in the beloved Keukenhof Gardens.

Nijmegen

A vibrant university town layered with history, attractive Nijmegen was originally settled by the Romans in the first century B.C. Explore an impressive array of pristinely preserved buildings, including the turreted 15th-century town hall and the 17th-century, Renaissance-style De Waagh. Overlooking the River Waal, Valkhof Hill features the captivating Barbarossa Ruins and ninth-century Carolingian chapel.

Cultural Enrichment:
Meet and engage with locals during the specially arranged River Life® Forum.

Kröller-Müller Museum

Among the heathlands and dunes of the Netherlands’ largest national park, De Hoge Veluwe, is the remarkable Kröller-Müller Museum, lauded for its collection of 90 Vincent van Gogh paintings and 180 of his drawings.

Cultural Enrichment:
See works by Pablo Picasso, Claude Monet, Pierre-Auguste Renoir and Édouard Manet, as well as captivating late-19th- to 21st-century pieces by Auguste Rodin, Henry Moore and Jean Dubuffet, wreathed in the idyllic woodland scenery of the 60-acre sculpture garden.

Kinderdijk

Designated a national monument and a UNESCO World Heritage site, Kinderdijk is home to Holland’s greatest concentration of old windmills. Here, little has changed since the mid-18th century, when 19 wooden windmills were erected side by side to drain the Alblasserwaard, one of many regions in the Netherlands below sea level. Though no longer used to monitor water levels, the windmills are still one of Holland’s most picturesque sights and represent exceptional examples of the achievements of 18th-century Dutch engineering.
Cultural Enrichment:
Excursion to the largest project of the Delta Works, hailed as one of the Seven Wonders of the Modern World by the American Society of Civil Engineers.

Ghent, Belgium
The authentic city of Ghent is replete with medieval and classical architecture. The UNESCO-designated Belfry of Ghent serves as a historical testament to the winning of civil liberties across the region. Admire the elegant windows and fanciful steeples of St. Bavo’s Cathedral, a Gothic masterpiece and the city’s enduring symbol with origins that date from the 10th century. Proceed to the chapel to see the Van Eyck brothers’ magnificent altarpiece Adoration of the Mystic Lamb—this polyptych is the most frequently stolen artwork of all time; in fact, one panel is still missing.

Bruges
Built around a double ring of charming canals connected by arched footbridges and renowned for its handcrafted chocolates, fairy-tale Bruges is a UNESCO World Heritage site of virtually untouched medieval architecture, including landmark Belfry of Belgium. Enjoy a walking tour from the Market Square to the magnificent Gothic-style Chapel of the Holy Blood to see the richly decorated stone guildhalls and opulent churches.

Antwerp
The alluring Old Town of Antwerp preserves its distinct Flemish culture in a labyrinth of squares and cobbled streets that are studded with museums, mansions and churches—all leading to the vibrant Grote Markt, where the town hall’s historical belfry, part of the Belfries of Belgium UNESCO World Heritage site, still stands tall.

Visit the Cathedral of Our Lady—with its UNESCO-inscribed belfry, the tallest church tower in Belgium—which preserves the 17th-century Baroque masterpieces of the city’s native son, Peter Paul Rubens, including paintings of The Assumption of the Virgin Mary, The Raising of the Cross and The Descent from the Cross.

Delft
Visit canal-ringed Delft to watch traditional craftspeople create iconic “Delft Blue” porcelain.

Cultural Enrichment:
Excursion to magnificent Keukenhof Gardens, known as the “Garden of Europe,” during the best time of year to see the colorful display of spring flowers in bloom.

Almere for Floriade
Experience the world’s largest horticultural exhibition, held only once a decade—Floriade Expo 2022. Nations from around the world will gather in Almere, the youngest city in the Netherlands, to share examples of sustainable architecture and flowers, plants and trees unique to their respective countries.

Walk through an area as big as 16 soccer fields and enjoy a spectrum of colors, scents, flavors and international exhibitions with events that range from cultural showcases to art installations. Located in the province of Flavoland, Almere is also home to a stunning coastline and abundant flora and fauna.
Exclusively Chartered, Deluxe Amadeus Star

The elegant and meticulously crafted Amadeus Star features all the comforts of a refined and traditional hotel. The 82 stylish Staterooms and Suites are among the most spacious of any European river ship (172 to 284 square feet). Suites include a private balcony, and select Staterooms feature a unique floor-to-ceiling window that lowers to French-balcony height at the touch of a button. Accommodations have two twin beds or one queen bed, individual climate control, sitting area, private bathroom with shower and a minibar. The stylish restaurant offers scenic views through panoramic windows and continental cuisine featuring fresh, local ingredients. Daily meals include early-risers’ coffee, breakfast, lunch, afternoon tea, four-course dinner with complimentary wine and beer, and late-evening snack.

For your leisure time on board there are two bars, the River Terrace open-air lounge, a beauty salon, a boutique, a massage room, a fitness studio and the Sun Deck. Complimentary Wi-Fi access is available (conditions permitting) and an elevator serves all passenger decks except the Sun Deck. There is no doctor on board.

The English-speaking, international crew provides warm hospitality. The Amadeus fleet has earned the important “Green Globe Certificate” of environmental sustainability.

Keukenhof Gardens

Affectionately known around the world as the “Garden of Europe” for its paramount beauty, Keukenhof, “kitchen garden,” is a brilliant and breathtaking tapestry of color and fragrance when its over 1,000 floral varieties reach full bloom between mid April and early May. Meticulously landscaped with tranquil ponds, placid streams and winding, tree-shaded paths, this vibrantly hued oasis was designed in 1857 by Jan David Zocher of Vondelpark fame. The gardens of Keukenhof originally formed part of the Teylingen Castle Estate, where the early-15th-century Countess Jacoba of Bavaria added an herb and vegetable garden.

RESPONSIBILITY: Gohagan & Company, University of Idaho, and its and their employees, shareholders, subsidiaries, affiliates, officers, directors or trustees, successors, and assigns (collectively “Gohagan”), do not own or operate any entity which is to or does provide goods or services for your program including, for example, lodging facilities, airlines, vessels, or other transportation companies, guides or guide services, local ground operators, providers or organizers of optional excursions, food service or entertainment providers, etc. All such persons and entities are independent contractors. As a result, Gohagan is not liable for any negligent or willful act, failure to act, financial or other defaults of any such person, entity, supplier or any other third party.

In addition and without limitation, Gohagan is not responsible for any injury, financial or other loss, death, inconvenience, delay, or damage to person or property in connection with the provision of any goods or services whether resulting from, but not limited to, acts of God or force majeure, acts or orders of government, delay or denial of entry into any country, acts or civil or military, insurrection or revolt, bites or attacks by animals, insects or pests, strikes or other labor activities, criminal or terrorist activities of any kind or the threat thereof, sickness, illness, epidemics or the threat thereof, the lack of availability of or access to medical attention or the quality thereof, overbooking or downgrade of accommodations, mechanical or other failure of airplanes, vessels or other means of transportation, or for any other causes or things beyond the control of Gohagan.

Gohagan reserves the right to change the itinerary or program features at any time and for any reason, with or without notice, and Gohagan shall not be liable for any loss of any kind as a result of any such changes. Schedule, tour dates, classes, bedrooms and other is entirely at owner’s risk. The party or parties who agree to accept as a participant, or remove from a program, without refund, any person Gohagan judges to be incapable of meeting the rigorous and requirements of participating in the activities, or who is abusive to other program participants, leaders or third parties, or who Gohagan determines to detract from the enjoyment of the program by others. Specifically, but not by way of limitation, participants will withdraw without further notice. Gohagan is not liable for any losses or damage (including without limitation, injury, illness, loss or theft of personal property, sickness, or death) which result from any act, error or omission of Gohagan or its agents, sole or joint, during transportation from airport to hotel, hotel to airport, or in any other matter which is not the fault of Gohagan. Gohagan is not responsible therefor and is not required to compensate for any loss or damage from any cause. Gohagan is not liable for any negligent or willful act, failure to act, financial or other defaults of any such person, entity, supplier or any other third party.

TRAVEL INSURANCE: We strongly recommend that you purchase trip cancellation insurance. In the event that you must cancel your participation in a travel program, trip cancellation insurance may be the only source of reimbursement. Trip cancellation insurance is available through Gohagan and other companies for comprehensive coverage of such expenses in conjunction with cancellation due to illness or accident, and damaged or lost luggage. An application will be sent to you upon receipt of your reservation.

RATES: Prices quoted are based on fares in effect at the time of printing and are subject to change at any time. On land and/or in-line services, even after full payment, Gohagan reserves the right to increase the program price in the event of cost increases due to changes in supplier costs, currency fluctuations or fuel and energy surcharges and all such increases are to be paid to Gohagan upon notice to the program participant of such increases. On programs which include Gohagan purchased interstate or international air transportation, any increases in airfares (which originates or returns to the United States), no increased costs will be passed on after final payment except for subsequently imposed governmental tax increases.

BINDING ARBITRATION: Any dispute concerning, relating or referring to this Agreement, the brochure or any other literature concerning the program, or the program itself, shall be resolved exclusively by binding arbitration pursuant to the Federal Arbitration Act, 9 U.S.C. Sections 1-16, either according to the then existing Commercial Rules of the American Arbitration Association (AAA) or pursuant to the Comprehensive Arbitration Rules & Procedures of the Judicial Arbitration and Mediation Services, Inc. (JAMS). Such proceedings will be governed by substantive (but not procedural) Illinois law and will take place in Chicago, Ill. The arbitrator and not either federal, state, or local court or agency shall have exclusive authority to resolve any dispute relating to the interpretation, construction, enforceability, conscionability, or formation of this contract, including but not limited to any claim that all or any part of this contract is void or voidable. Please understand that by agreeing to these terms and conditions, the participant and Gohagan are waiving the right to a trial by jury. Any arbitration commenced against Gohagan must be an on behalf of all the signatory to this Agreement and his or her immediate family members who traveled with signatory, such as a spouse or child. Under no circumstances can participant be part of a class or other joint action.
